

2021

April Landowner's contacted for survey approval

June Agency outreach began with State Historic Preservation Office's

September
Local elected officials contacted

October
Resource and permitting agencies introduced to the Project

December
Regional EPA offices contacted. Project website went live with contact information and Project details

December 7
Letter sent to all stakeholders with Project information

December 20
Tribal stakeholders were contacted for feedback
and guidance

2022

January State environmental justice coordinators
contacted for feedback
and guidance

January 6 & 7
Comment card mailing to all stakeholders requesting direct feedback

February 1
Project information table in Pine Grove, WV

February
Newspaper ads published with open house details

February 14
Mailing to all stakeholders announcing the NOA and invitation to open house events

March 1
Greene County, PA Open House

March 15
Wetzel County, WV
Open House

March 16
Monroe County, OH
Information session

July 29 Equitrans formalized and announced
Environmental Justice Policy

As we move through the Project lifecycle, Equitrans Midstream and the OVCX project team will continue outreach efforts by reaching out to stakeholders, conducting safety meetings with local fire departments, helping local organizations, and volunteering our time and efforts in the communities in which we live and work.